

MİTAŞ Industry Inc. is aware of the importance of quality, environment, occupational health-safety and information security issues in order to be a successful and reliable global brand in the sector in which it operates.

To this end, MİTAŞ Industry carries out its activities in a sustainable manner in accordance with its integrated management system, which covers quality, environment, occupational health-safety and information security in line with its vision, mission and values.

Our vision,

To be a global brand that directs its sector in national and international markets.

Our mission,

To provide economical, genuine, innovative and reliable products, solutions and services globally in order to improve the quality of human life and contribute to the global development.

In this context, MİTAŞ Industry commits;

- to continually improve all its processes by managing the risks effectively,
- to set measurable targets for its business processes and increase their performance competitively at international level,
- to maintain a dynamic, innovative and competitive position by constantly improving human resources, information and production technologies,
- to create customer expectations in all products and processes in the value chain and meet them in team spirit,
- to conduct the work in compliance with current legislation, internationally recognized standards, customer requirements and good business practices, and develop regulatory compliance,
- to take necessary precautions to prevent possible negative effects of its activities on human beings and environment from the design phase to the end of the life cycle, and to apply them with all employees, suppliers and contractors,
- to minimize unsafe and insecure situations, behaviors, and risks of possible incidents and occupational diseases,
- to use energy and natural resources effectively as to reduce consumption, waste and greenhouse gas formation, and prevent pollution,
- to improve the skills and competencies of its employees and business partners in terms of quality, environment, occupational health-safety and information security, and to ensure participation and consultation of them,
- to ensure the security of customers, partners and employees' sensitive information and intellectual property; to intervene quickly and appropriately in violation of information security as to minimize the loss and to maintain its activities with minimum interruption,
- to ensure the continuity of three basic elements of information security that confidentiality, integrity, accessibility in all activities carried out.

Cenk ALKANPresident